Don't call me Na-o-mi, call me Ma - ra from now on.

13 I'm not the same Na - o - mi, that Na - o - mi's dead andgone, Her house was filled with 18 laugh-ter, hap-py child-ren through theyears, This one who stands be-fore you, is filled with

23 bit-ter-ness and tears". Don't call me Na - o-mi call me Ma - ra from now on, The 29 Lord's hand went out a gainst me, left me de-so-late and a-lone, Ex-cept for this one who

34 loves me, wi-dow of my son Mah - lon, She re-fused to

38 leave me, still, I'm "Ma - ra", from now on!" 16

57 Don't call me Na - o-mi call me Ma - ra from now on, Now my life is emp-ty, like a

63 bird with-out a song But, if the Lord re-turs to me, to take a-way myshame, And 69 if, I start to live a gain, then you can call me by my rit.

72 name, call me by my rit. name
